(If short insert here; if lengthy write on separate sheet and attach.)

On December 14, 2006, Mr. Cintron was released from the U.S. Marshal Service. It was discovered during his initial office visit that the Court ordered the defendant to pay all fees associated with the electronic monitoring service. However, Your Honor verbally ordered the Probation Office to assume these fees.

Mr. Cintron is currently unemployed and unable to contribute towards the cost of electronic monitoring service.

Based on the defendant's current financial situation the U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends that the Court order the Probation Office to assume the cost of the electronic monitoring service.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER the U.S. Probation Office to assume the costs of the electronic monitoring service.
